POLICY

School profile

We are a co-educational, government secondary school catering to young adults studying year 11 and 12. We have multiple pathways available for learners and we offer VCE, VET and VCAL. Our curriculum and timetable is varied and flexible to cater to a range of needs, attitudes and values.

We've been around since 1913, and we have the archive photos with serious student faces to prove it. In 1993, we started focusing on senior students who didn't feel at home in other, more traditional, schools.

We don't have a uniform and we don't care what colour someone's hair is. We trust our students to get themselves to class when they have to be there. Some young people come to us for our renowned visual and performing arts, design and technology and humanities programs; some want to get ahead with our mathematics, science and commerce programs.

Whatever their passion, our young people have access to 38 VCE subjects, VCAL at intermediate and senior levels and a broad range of VET certificate courses, of which 16 are taught at the school. Classes are scheduled over a four-day week, with Wednesday a day when classrooms are open for students to complete tasks, prepare for exams, speak to teachers or undertake VET subjects.

We want to redress disadvantage and discrimination. Every young adult, regardless of gender, ethnicity, sexuality or life circumstance has an opportunity to succeed here. Our young adults don't have to pretend to be someone they're not. Swinburne Senior Secondary College students arrive from all over greater metropolitan Melbourne and from government, independent and Catholic secondary schools. Our average enrolment is around 420 students from 130 feeder schools.

School values, philosophy and vision

Swinburne Senior Secondary College's Statement of Values and School Philosophy is integral to the work that we do and is the foundation of our school community. Students, staff and members of our school community are encouraged to live and demonstrate our core values of respect, integrity and kindness at every opportunity.
